

Paul Hervey-Brookes

Paul Hervey-Brookes is a well-respected designer who has built a strong reputation for landscapes and gardens that classically rely on planting to create spaces and rich, multi-layered habitats. His plant-focused philosophy is rooted in his early training at the Royal Botanic Garden, Edinburgh and subsequent garden experiences.

Paul has been described by his peers as arty, creative and possessing immense plant knowledge. His ability to read landscapes and evoke intense feelings and emotions has won him acclaim across the board. He works on a diverse range of public landscapes and private gardens both in the United Kingdom and Internationally with projects in Thailand, Russia, New Zealand, The United States and Israel.

He has created a number of show gardens including seven at the Chelsea Flower Show, where he has won Gold in 2013, 2018 and 2019 respectively.

Paul created one of the largest show gardens ever staged at the inaugural RHS Chatsworth winning, Gold, Best in Show and Best Construction, he went on to win Gold at RHS Hampton Court immediately after for Viking Cruises.

Paul is the only British designer to have been invited to Gardening World Cup an unprecedented four times, winning Gold, Best Planting and Best in Show. In total to date Paul has 13 Gold Medals and in recognition is an RHS Gardens Judge, he has is Chairman of Judging at all the RHS shows including RHS Chelsea Flower Show.

To date, Paul is the only designer to have been invited to work with Marks & Spencer, developing a range of gardening gifts in 2011-12 and was made an Honorary Fellow of the Institute of Quarry in 2017 for his work with quarry and public awareness. Paul is a regular columnist for Cotswold Life Magazine, Explore More Magazine and lecturer on both Viking and Fred Olsen Cruises.
